

Pre Incas cultures at the Ecuadorian coast

Santa Elena Peninsula was once home to several Pre-Inca cultures such as Sumpa, Valdivia, Machalilla & Chorrera. During your visit to Santa Elena you will explore Amantes de Sumpa Archeological and Anthropological Museum, La Chocolatera Cliffs and Farallon Dillon nautical museum, if you would like to cool off then there is also the opportunity to stop at Chipipe Beach for a quick swim.

After lunch you will return to Guayaquil

The excursion includes:

- Private transportation
- Bilingual guide
- Meals: lunch

The excursion does not include:

Personal expenses, tips or anything else not mentioned in the program description

Duration: 10 hours (recommended departure time 08:00 am)

What to bring:

- Lightweight clothes
- Bathing suit (optional)
- Towel
- Hat
- Sun block
- Binoculars
- Sandals.